MAJESTIC CANYONS, PROLIFIC WILDLIFE, FRESHWATER SWIMMING HOLES AND OUTBACK STATIONS; THE KIMBERLEY IS SOMETHING ELSE!

Three times the size of England, with a population of just 40,000, this part of Australia has become known as one of the world's last wilderness frontiers. Despite its vast remoteness, it certainly doesn't lack in great food, friendly locals, luxury experiences and romantic beach towns. If there's one certainty, it's that you won't return home the same person after experiencing the magic of Australia's northwest corner on this Globus tour.

Starting in Darwin, you'll travel west through some of the most vast landscapes you'll ever encounter, to Broome, with overnight stops in Darwin, Katherine, Kununurra, El Questro Station, Fitzroy Crossing and Broome.

From beginning to end, you won't be short of fascinating vistas on this guided holiday. Relax in the warm waters of the Zebedee Thermal Springs in El Questro Station, before joining a guided walk to Emma Gorge; enjoy a cruise through the stunning Geikie Gorge, known for its sheer white and grey walls at Fitzroy Crossing; and, bask in the sunshine and sea-salty air during your stay at beautiful Broome. Why not go all out while you're there and take a scenic seaplane flight over Horizontal Falls? Or take a magical morning camel ride on Cable Beach, travelling along the shores of the Indian Ocean?

This is just a few of the many highlights of this Kimberley and Top End tour featuring some of the world's most stunning scenery, fascinating cultural sites and incredible experiences.

HIGHLIGHTS

TAKE A DIP

Take a refreshing swim in the crystal clear waters of Emma Gorge, set in the wilderness of El Questro.
